THEME: RESEARCH, TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION: THE BEDROCK FOR GLOBAL DEVELOPMENT

18th June 2015

Subject: Invitation to the 2nd International Scientific E-Conference 2015

Greetings! It is a great pleasure to invite you to participate in the 2nd International Scientific E-Conference 2015 on “Research, Technology and Innovation: The Bedrock For Global Development” organized by Texila American University, Guyana, South America. A Conference happening in a virtual environment wherein participants do most of the things they would be able to do in a physical conference without having everybody in the same place at the same time through Open Forum, where all accepted articles will be placed in open forum for discussion. Reviewers or Authors can place in their comments and views on the article as part of the Open forum discussion thus providing an excellent International Forum for sharing knowledge and results.

Our first Scientific E-Conference 2014 has welcomed more than 420 delegates from 46 plus countries. With this leap forward we were able to welcome all for the Second Scientific E- Conference 2015 in order to create and maintain a wider relationship with the Texila American University.

We seek novel, innovative and exciting work full-length papers from the prospective authors in all areas including but are not limited to the following fields: Research Papers on Public Health, Clinical Research, Nursing, Psychology, Management, Information Technology, Education, and Political Sciences.

We will be happy to have you as one of the honorable participants by presenting your research papers, articles, survey papers etc and become part of the Second International Scientific E-Conference which will provide an excellent international forum for sharing knowledge and results in the open forum.

For Registration and more details about the E-Conference visit <http://www.texilaconference.org/> and kindly refer the attached the e-brochure which is sent along with this email.

Kindly circulate the E-Conference brochure among the Faculties, Scholars & Students in your Institutions/ Departments etc.

If any further queries please contact us: iseconference@tau.edu.gy

We warmly welcome you to the world of International Scholars.
